FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GASCO and JMJ to Share Learnings from Habshan 5 Safety Culture at the 16th Abu Dhabi International Petroleum Exhibition and Conference (ADIPEC)

AUSTIN, TEXAS, October 31, 2013—On November 12, 2013, Mustafa Ishaq, GASCO Habshan 5 Project Manager and JMJ Senior Consultant Rami Majaj will discuss, “Promoting Safety Culture: Changing the Existing Mindset,” at the ADIPEC Conference in Abu Dhabi, UAE.

During the session, Ishaq and Majaj will share their experiences of developing and promoting a unique safety culture on the IGD Habshan 5 Mega Project in Abu Dhabi. The presentation will explore the successes and challenges faced creating a high performance safety culture culminating in over 100 million Man-hours without a lost time injury (LTI).

The session is scheduled for 14:45 on Tuesday, November 12, 2013. (Session 38, Human Capital Management Projects)

“The Habshan 5 project is one of the largest and most complex projects of its kind,” Rami Majaj says. “Mustafa and I are excited to share how a world class safety culture on this kind of project was achieved with a workforce of tens of thousands of people and 30,000 at peak.”

The Abu Dhabi International Petroleum Exhibition & Conference (ADIPEC) 2013 themed “Energy for All in a Changing World,” will form a powerful platform for industry leaders to share best practices, case studies and applications on the latest technological breakthroughs in the gas and oil sectors. ADIPEC is one of the largest petroleum shows in the world and will be held at the Abu Dhabi National Exhibition Centre between 10 -13 November 2013. Fully endorsed by the UAE Ministry of Energy, Abu Dhabi National Oil Company (ADNOC) and the Society of Petroleum Engineers, ADIPEC 2013 will play host to more than 50,000 industry executives who are spearheading the growth and development of the global petroleum industry.
